NOVABANK BANKING FAQ

Document Version: 1.0

1. WHAT IS EMI?

EMI stands for Equated Monthly Instalment.

It is the fixed or scheduled amount a borrower pays periodically towards a loan. An EMI generally consists of both principal and interest components.

The actual EMI depends on the loan amount, interest rate, and loan tenure.

2. WHAT HAPPENS IF I MISS AN EMI?

If a customer misses a scheduled EMI payment, applicable late payment charges or other consequences may apply according to the loan agreement and NovaBank's applicable policy.

Repeated missed payments may negatively affect the customer's credit profile and may result in additional collection or recovery actions according to applicable terms.

Customers who expect difficulty making a payment should contact NovaBank through an official channel as soon as possible.

3. WHAT IS MINIMUM BALANCE?

The minimum balance requirement depends on the type of NovaBank account.

Customers should refer to the specific account terms and conditions for the applicable minimum balance requirement.

4. HOW CAN I CONTACT NOVABANK?

Customers should use official NovaBank channels such as:

- NovaBank mobile banking application.
- NovaBank internet banking.
- Official NovaBank customer support.

- NovaBank branches.

5. HOW CAN I CHECK MY ACCOUNT BALANCE?

Customers can check their account balance through supported NovaBank digital banking channels or by visiting a NovaBank branch.

6. WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I FORGET MY INTERNET BANKING PASSWORD?

Customers should use the official password reset or recovery option provided by NovaBank's internet banking service.

Customers should never share their password or OTP with anyone.

7. WHAT IS A PERSONAL LOAN?

A personal loan is an unsecured loan that can be used for permitted personal financial requirements.

NovaBank personal loan eligibility, interest rates, loan amounts, and tenure depend on applicable policy and customer profile.

8. WHAT IS A HOME LOAN?

A home loan is a loan provided for eligible residential property purposes such as purchasing, constructing, or renovating a home.

Eligibility and applicable terms depend on the customer's profile and NovaBank policy.

9. HOW CAN I REPORT AN UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTION?

Customers should immediately contact NovaBank through an official banking channel and report the unauthorized transaction.

Customers should never share their OTP, PIN, password, or other confidential banking credentials with anyone.

10. IMPORTANT SECURITY INFORMATION

NovaBank will not ask customers to disclose confidential credentials such as:

- ATM PIN

- Card PIN
